Padre Golf Committee "Optimistic," Plans for 14th Annual "Y2K" Tournament at Mission Viejo CC

The 14th Annual Padre Golf and Tennis Tournament has been scheduled for Monday, June 5, 2000 at the beautiful Mission Viejo Country Club in Mission Viejo, California. Tom McDonald, class of '54, has taken the reigns from Harry Carter, and his committee wasted no time in selecting the gem of a course, "freeway close to all of Southern California."

"I'm sure our golfers will find this "track" to be fun while at the same time very challenging," reports Tom, "and it is in the best shape ever with the addition of new facilities to compliment the Padre golfer." Recent additions have been named for Mark O'Meara, who learned the game at MVCC.

This golf tournament will truly be an experience golfers won't want to miss. In addition, Bob Blackmore will be back to oversee a spirited tennis tournament for those that prefer the courts to the links.

As always, proceeds from the Padre go to assist the infirmed and retired Carmelite Priests and Brothers.

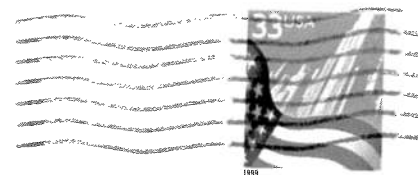

Tom can be reached, if you have ideas or to volunteer, at 949-489-1227.

ADDRESS CORRECTION REQUESTED

A beautiful day Padre '99 a winner

The day began early with several of the golf committee arriving at the Yorba Linda CC well before 8 a.m. Each one getting his or her area set up for the arrival of the golfers. Father Nagle supervising the activities had the situation well in hand. Harry Carter brought in a truckload of door prizes and silent auction items and a little later, Bob Blackmore and Gerry Allen brought in the truckload of golf bags, our main tee prize. Jim and Nina Clark made sure all golfers got one.

Meanwhile Kay Felix and Donna Honer registered and Barbara Carter and John McDermott gave our tee packages and Ray Petty sold "good luck" envelopes. Terry Smith previewed auction items during the continental breakfast.

First Place Handicap Flight, Low Net of 51.6, beam proudly: Ken Redfern, Butch Fredlow, Dave DeNunzio Jr. and Dave DeNunzio, Sr.

Al Prukop started the putting contest with son Tom winning. Dick Mora was second and Gerry Allen third. While that was going on, Judy McKeever and Gloria Petty distributed the box lunches.

At 11 a.m. "ladies and gents, start your carts" (or something like that) got everyone out to their tees and a beautiful day of golf began. A combination of great weather and a great course provided many outstanding rounds.

Victor Chavez, '48, serves as Presiding Judge of L.A. Superior Court

Judge Victor Chavez knows exactly how he has come to be Presiding Judge of a system with 300 courts, over 3000 employees. "I'm so grateful for what those marvelous men did for us," stated Victor, as he reminisced about the Mt. Carmel faculty that shaped his destiny.

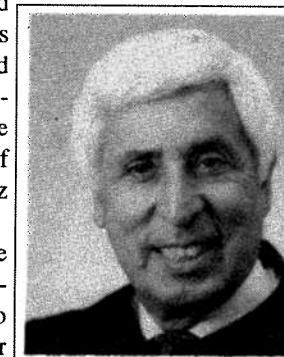

From his home at 2nd and Hoover, Chavez owes his Mt. Carmel heritage to Richard Howard, a lifelong friend and one who worked to get Victor a football scholarship. Like so many Carmel alum's, that friendship continues with at least monthly get togethers between the two friends.

Chavez, after graduating from Mt. Carmel, attended Loyola University. Graduating in 1953, he entered the Air Force, leaving as a First Lieutenant. He then entered Loyola Law School, graduating in 1959.

Victor associated himself with another attorney by the name of Leonard Pomerantz and for 20 years he practiced law as partner in the firm of Pomerantz & Chavez.

In 1990 he was appointed to the Superior Court by Gov. George Deukmejian and in January of 1999 was elected by his fellow judges. "It is a heavy administrative load," stated Victor, "while it also involves leading our court system into the 21st Century."

Victor and wife, Marlene (a Ph.D. in her own right), have six children, four step-children and 15 grandchildren. Speaking of children, daughter and Judge Victoria Chavez, after being named to the Superior Court and being so happy about it, finally interested Victor into considering a new career on the bench. She swore him in.

Recognition of our Mt. Carmel "classmate" has come from many circles. He was recently recognized by the American Board of Trial Advocates for his "exemplary promotion of courtroom civility." In 1998, Loyola named him Alumnus of the Year and in 1997 he was selected as "Person of the Year" by the Los Angeles legal newspaper, The Metropolitan News-Enterprise and received the Outstanding Judicial Achievement Award from the Con-

Hi Tom,
I'm a grad from '59 and am interested in finding a group who may know about our 40 year reunion. Know anything, let me know (310-372-6721).

Just a note to say thanks for great job on Crusader. I'm three years retired from UNOCAL (40 years) and my bride from St. Mary's, Gay Lee, and I celebrated our 40th in 1998.

Tom,
Here's $50 for "whatever" and thanks for keeping our great memories alive. I don't know if this would have occurred had it not been for Fr. Nagle's reintroduction to us at the "inaugural" fund raiser in San Pedro. He brought many of us back together. He spent a few nights with us here in La Quinta in March. Lots of memories looking through annuals and old pictures of my football days.

Dear Tom,

To the best of my memory, I am the only Kearney of the 1948 class. However, having enjoyed 50 years of marriage, 5 children, 22 grandchildren and soon to be 3 great grandchildren, I guess I deserve to receive two (2) copies of The Crusader.

All kidding aside, there is a zip code error (taken care of).

I am sorry that I was forced to miss the 50th reunion, but eye surgery in August of '98 left me with problems that I am pleased to say are now being corrected. Perhaps the guys will elect to do a "year-by-year" reunion because to wait for the 75th means we will all have to meet in heaven.

Tom,

Enjoyed the Dec. issue of The Crusader. Don't hear much from the first and second graduating classes ('38 & '39). I'm from '39 and over the years lost my yearbook. It grieves me that Mt. Carmel is no longer in existence at an area that probably needs a Catholic high school very much. So it goes.

Enclosed is a little something to keep you (Ed note: not me, I do it for love) and The Crusader going.

John Skelley
Canyon Country, CA

Dear Mr. Pinard,

I have been receiving The Crusader for some time, even prior to my retirement here in Las Vegas. I spent most of my time in the travel industry.

I wish to say that sending me a newsletter is an expense, continue if you wish, but I rarely get to L.A. I was in the Class of '51, went to LACC, enlisted in Air Force, '52-'56, finished Cal State LA in '60. And moved to Alexandria, VA for my career.

Michael Jungers, '51
North Las Vegas, NV

Tom,

Your newsletter is great. Keep up the good work. As is the case with all news publications, they bring good news and sad.

Jim Norfleet's passing saddened me. Jim and I served together in Korea. I'll treasure his memory, always.

Just sending my very best to all, (along with a little donation to the fund). Thanks for the Crusader — always great. My very best to Fr. Nagle.

Editor's Note: To the contrary, Red, a good share of your Carmel alums have stepped up to the plate and provide funding to make The Crusader happen twice a year.

Hi Tom,

Just re-read the Dec. issue and remembered that I had intended to send in a donation. I enjoy reading the letters you published and recognized a lot of names from years ago at both Nativity School and Mt. Carmel.

John Guerin feted for his 50 years practicing law

John Guerin

John Joseph Guerin, '44, was feted this past June by his children and friends on the 50th anniversary in the practice of law. John, known in the Huntington Beach area as the "Lawyer in Shorts," held forth at a celebration of music, dancing and reminiscing at Seaclyff Country Club.

John was born in 1926 and raised by his grandmother. Attending Mt. Carmel during the early war years, he lettered in football and boxing and was voted Student Body President in '43/'44. He received the American Legion medal as the most outstanding student upon graduation.

Following graduation, John was drafted and entered the V-12 program (officer training) and attended the University of Colorado. As the war ended, John returned to Los Angeles and finished law school at Loyola. John followed in his father's footsteps, the senior Guerin having attended Loyola Law.

John actually passed the bar before graduating and was in court the very next day. To date, John has taken over 80 jury trials and has been the winner in a great number of some unusual and capital cases. John's specialty is appeals. He has handled over 100 appeals for clients and other attorneys and has been exhaustingly successful changing the law.

To date, John has 46 published appeals in the California Appellant Reports.

John is married to Nadine and they have ten children; Alfred, Teresa, Yvonne, Edward, Arthur, Nina, Jojo, Michael, Thomas and Regis.

Even with a few health problems, including a close-call by-pass operation in 1996, John is still going strong. He has been working steady in his own practice in Huntington Beach for over 33 years, averaging six to seven days a week. In addition to his professional accomplishments, most of John's family and friends will say that he is one of the most intelligent, unpretentious, loyal kind generous and fun loving persons around (sounds like a Carmel

Padre XIII nets $37,814 for fund

Two foursomes on every hole, twelve tennis players and some fifty dinner guests, made the thirteenth annual Padre Golf and Tennis Tournament a resounding financial success.

Under the leadership of Harry Carter, this year's tournament at Yorba Linda Country Club stressed a quality time for all involved, indicated Father Nagle, the inspirational originator and guiding light of the annual Mt. Carmel Los Angeles event.

Breaking out the income and expenses of the annual Padre event, hosted to provide medical expenses for the retired and infirm Carmelite Priests, one sees a gross for the "year" of just under $72,000. Golf fees, the cruise raffle and various fund raising the day of the tournament brought in $57,000 of the total.

Just over $33,000 in cost have a direct tie to the actual tournament.

Donations through the year by friends and alumni of Mt. Carmel brought in just over $12,000 this year and specific donations to defray the cost of producing The Crusader brought in $2,250. Printing cost of the twice yearly newsletter for Mt. Carmel High School alumni runs just under $1200. Due to generous donations of time and postage by Mt. Carmel alumni, no additional costs are incurred.

grad - ed.).

A number of his fellow Class of '44 grads were in attendance at the party, along with members of the HB community. The program included photos from John's yearbook, along with mementos from friends of fifty years.

Richard Lujan, '55 Wins Baja Cruise

The winner of this year's "big prize," a four night, five day vacation for two on a Royal Caribbean cruise ship, was won by Richard Lujan.

The first class trip was offered for the second year as it proved very popular.

sumer Attorneys of California.

Considering these honors, Victor was quick to point out that Mt Carmel has a number of fine alum's on the bench. Justice Dick Aldrich, '56, is on the state appellate Court, Judge Bill Rea, '38, is a federal district court judge and on the L.A. Superior Court are Judges John Shook, '56 Bob Mallano, '56 and just retired, Victor Berrara.

Victor figures Roger Wagner was his role model at Mt. Carmel (along with a litany of Carmelites he ticked off), and to this day he wears French Cuffs as a tribute to Wagner's dapper ways.

"We were so fortunate, having these fine mentors and I am saddened that there aren't more today seeking the vocation to do the same for today's youth," concluded Judge Chavez.

Tom,

I saw the request from John Knoerschuld in the December Crusader. Do you have a more specific address for Crespi? John was a classmate of mine, one of the few I've heard anything of. Also, do you know if Fr. Ken Krause is brother to Steve and Marsha. (Sister) Marsha was a classmate at St. Michael's grade school and I believe Ken may have been around my brother Ed's era.

Tom,

Bill Hone gave me a copy of the "The Crusader" last year and he has since retired. I lost touch with Bill after graduation in 1951 until he walked into my hospital room 20 years later to tell me he was going to be the Urologist doing my kidney surgery. His first words were "where did you go to high school". He was my doctor until last year and we shared what info we had about classmates along the way. I am now retired from Hughes. Are you still publishing and is the mailing address still the same for the Crusader Fund? Please advise.

Dear Tom,

While being fairly new to the Internet and knowing little about the costs of setting up and maintaining a web site, it would be great if we had a site. Not only could the Crusader be put on the site (thus lessening the cost of distribution) but communication amongst alumni would be facilitated. (I would venture to guess that within two or three years a large majority of alumni will have easy access to the Internet.) The cost of setting up a web site could be covered by donations and the cost of maintaining the site could be offset by product sales (class memorabilia, auto decals, personalized golf equipment, etc.) and alumni advertising.

Since most of the alumni activities occur in Southern California and a majority of the alumni, including the Crusader editor, reside in Southern California, the site should originate from that area (though the "world wide" description may argue against this). I would volunteer for the job but at this time I am not familiar with the ins and outs of setting up and maintaining a web site. It may be six months to a year before I would be competent in this area.

If this project has not yet been initiated I hope this communication will spur someone on to establish such a site. Please inform whomever takes up the challenge that I would be happy to contribute in some manner. I am copying a few people who might find this idea interesting.

To all of you who might be interested in ancient history, The class of 1949 (check your calendar that's 50 years ago) as mentioned in the note in which I am responding is planning a reunion, September 11, 1999. If you or any other schoolmates, relatives or friends think you would enjoy this evening of catching up on 50 years of history from the class of '49 please reply back and I will send more details. We have contacted 90% of our classmates that are still living. Hope all of you have success with your reunions. My prayers go out to Fr. Ken Krause (class of 1953) for his courage and strength. Also, I will pass the message out to all of our class. Thanks for all the input and help.

My name is Leonard Wiley, class of '58. Please include me on your list. Was just by chance looking up Mt. Carmel on the internet and it came up. I didn't think anything would come up. Nice to know Mt. Carmel is alive and well even though the school no longer exists. I was wondering why there is no mention of the class of '58. No one from that year has shown any interest? I am a retired LAPD officer living in Port Angeles, Wa. I was tired of seeing violence and crime on the news every night and had to get out of Dodge. A slower pace and less people and crime is more desirable. Beautiful country up here with the four seasons.

Do I remember Roger Wagner? Of course I remember him. In addition to being the choir director, Roger was one very cool guy! I didn't (at 17 !!!) think much of his mustache, but he did drive one of THE COOLEST cars around. A 1941 Ford Convert. - Black with a white Carson top and most of the other important tricks of the era. He used to come rumbling into the inside parking lot in THE CAR, right after lunch and stayed for about 2 hours, then rumbled out. And he was always a very sharp dresser - always top stuff! Seems to me he was director when I started in '46 and was still there in '50. I believe he left soon after to go on to bigger and better things.

Two July '99 "life stories" from Orange County spot-lite Carmel grads, Sweetland and Brickner Expanded, human interest obituaries appear in the Orange County Register and in July two our own had their wonderful life stories told. Tom Sweetland, '48, gained fame at Compton College, playing in two Jr. Rose Bowls. He opened one of the first Winchell's Donut shops in Costa Mesa from 1956 to 1987. His success came from the love he had for his fellow man. Reporter Robin Hinch captured the consummate Mt. Carmel alum (the universal man) in her warm story. Tom is survived by his wife of 51 years, Rene, of San Clemente, daughters Karen and Julie, sons Timothy and Patrick, nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Jack Brickner, '40, followed Tom by 19 days and again Robin was there to spotlight the life of a successful (in loving life) Carmel grad. Jack went to Loyola U., then the Navy during WWII. He met and married Patty Creany in '44. Working for a vitamin company, Jack ended up in the "flavors" business as co-owner of Flavors Inc.-Brickscis. Jack was a gentle man. The Orange, CA resident is survived by Patty, daughter, Theresa Washburn, son Chris and three grandchildren.

Second Place Handicap Flight, low net 52.8 line up: Marlin McKeever, Dick Mora, Don Macke and Mike McDonald

A beautiful day, Padre '99 is a winner

The field was divided almost evenly with 19 teams in the Peoria Flight and 17 teams in the Handicap Flight. There wasn't much similarity in their games. The Handicap group had 16 of the 17 teams shooting par or better. They had an average gross of 68.8 and an average net of 58.4. Their low gross round was 59 (12 under) and their low net round was 51.6 (19.4 under). Wow!

In contrast, the Peoria Flight group had only 6 of the 19 teams at or below par. Their average gross was 74.9 and had an average net of 73.7. Their low gross round was 65 (6 under) and a low net of 70. This low net figure reflects the difference in the handicap systems, whereby the Peoria Flight team that shot 65 actually got +8 handicap. The Peoria system handicap you may recall is based on how you play 3 holes on the front nine and three on the back. These holes are drawn before the round begins and comprise a 3, 4 & 5 par on each side. For teams whose players don't have handicaps this system levels the field rather nicely.

There were some truly notable rounds shot on a fairly tough course. The team of Mike McDonald, Marlin McKeever, Don Macke and Dick Mora shot 59. They made 12 birdies, 7 of which came on the back nine on their way to a 29. Some great shooting gentlemen.

The team of Dave De Nunzio, Dave Jr., Butch Fredlow and Ken Redfern

also had a fine round. They birdied the 1st hole then went on a six hole birdie spree on holes 4 through 9, carding a 28 on the front side. They then got three more on the back nine for a 61 gross. Wow!!

Jack Putney's team of himself, Len Bobier, Nick Marikian and Rob Shea had the low round of the Peoria Flighters, also shooting a nifty 65 with six birdies. The rest of the field didn't shoot quite as well, but still had a great time.

While the golfers were out there having a ball, the volunteers were busy all over the golf course and at the clubhouse. Judy McKeever was on the 7th tee managing the "in the circle" hole." With her friendly smile and quick wit she coaxed a bet out of almost all the golfers. At the $10,000 Hole-in-One hole (13) Ambrose and Shirley Baccaro managed the Tee and John Nagle, Fr. Nagle's nephew, was at the green. Our favorite photographer and his able assistant, George Carillo and Gloria Petty, were on the 10th Tee getting a picture of each team as they came through. The rest of the crew was back at the clubhouse getting the dining room set up for the evening's festivities.

Late in the afternoon the tennis players and golfers began arriving at the club house to visit with all their old buddies and telling tall tales about their exploits on the golf course and courts.

The diners began arriving soon after and added to the party atmosphere. Father Nagle welcomed everyone and expressed his sincere gratitude, on behalf of the Carmelite Fathers, for their participation in the Padre Golf and Tennis Tournament. After that, a really excellent dinner was served.

As dinner wound down, Harry Carter and Father Nagle gave out the awards to the winning golf teams and Bob Blackmore made the tennis awards. Harry auctioned off the Seattle Seahawks football autographed by Mike Holmgren, announced the top bidders for each of the silent auction items and held a drawing for over 50 door prizes. In all, nearly 100 awards, auction items and door prizes were given to the 203 diners.

As the evening concluded everyone was pleased with their participation in the Padre and are looking forward to next year.
